Dear Sir,

RE: SENATE APPROVAL OF CURRICULAR ON ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND INNOVATION

I wish to notify you about the approval of Entrepreneurship and Innovation courses by the Senate of Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria.

Different curricula on entrepreneurship and Innovation have been considered and approved as general courses for levels 200 and 300 undergraduates as well as postgraduate students (including ACENPEE students), by the Senate of Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria. Entrepreneurship courses are being offered as general courses (GENS Courses) by all undergraduate and postgraduate students of Ahmadu Bello University in the course of their studies.

Entrepreneurship and Innovation Courses/Curricula approved by the Senate of Ahmadu Bello University include;

- (i) GENS202 - Entrepreneurship and Innovation (2CU)
- (ii) GENS301 - Business Creation and Growth (2CU)
- (iii) NUTR711 - Introductory Management & Entrepreneurship (2CU)
- (iv) SCI801 - Management Entrepreneurship (2CU)
- (v) CEE004 - Entrepreneurship in Engineering (2CU)

The curricula were well developed to cover hands-on projects, internships, and real-world case studies to provide practical experience, business planning, financial management, marketing, creating an environment that encourages creativity and risk-taking, and providing resources for students to develop and test their ideas, etc.

The entrepreneurship courses are meant to prepare students for the challenges of the modern economy, by equipping students with entrepreneurial skills and mind-sets for economic independence. It fosters innovation, economic growth, and personal development, making it a critical component of contemporary education systems.

Accept the assurances of my highest regard.

Prof. Kabiru Bala
Vice-chancellor & Chairman of Senate,
Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria
